

INVITATION

The EUNIC Cluster Athens has the pleasure to invite you to the Conference:

„EUROPEAN VALUES REVISITED: THE ROLE OF CULTURE IN REFUGEE INTEGRATION INTO LOCAL COMMUNITIES“

The Conference is intended to showcase the different views and the progress on the issue of European values and discuss whether they are still identified at the core of Europe's policies and behaviours, pinpoint the challenges and their sources with emphasis to the refugee crisis and seek for ideas for actions/projects to deal with the challenges in order to safeguard and promote European values with the aim to achieve the social and cultural inclusion of refugees.

Venue: The American College of Greece
6 Grivas Str., Athens

Date: 11th of November 2016, 18:00

Keynote speakers: Pericles Vallianos, Professor at UOA, Department of Political Science
Romed Perfler, Head of the Values and Orientation Division of the Austrian Integration Fund
Michael Metz- Mørch, President EUNIC

Reception will follow

EUNIC is the network of European national institutes of culture and national bodies engaged in cultural and related activities beyond their national borders. EUNIC brings together organizations from all 28 EU member states and adds value through its global network of clusters. By pooling together the resources and expertise of its members and carrying out joint work on common areas of interest, EUNIC is a recognised partner of the EU and its stakeholders in defining and implementing European policy on culture inside and outside the EU.

EUNIC promotes cultural diversity and cultural dialogue and advocates for a stronger role for culture in public policies and in external relations, both at European and international level. By means of its clusters, EUNIC has a strong capacity to deliver collaborative transnational projects connecting culture and society, as well as significant potential for training and research in cultural diplomacy and cultural relation.
